Introduction

The report has been divided into the three areas which you are scored against: food hygiene and safety procedures, structural requirements and confidence in management/control procedures. Each section begins with a summary of what was observed and the score you have been given. Details of how these scores combine to produce your overall food hygiene rating are shown in the table on the next page. You can use the table to see where you have done well and where improvements can be made.

Sections identifying health and safety and public health concerns may be included at the end of the report, these do not form part of your food hygiene rating.

Relevant Legislation

Food Safety Act 1990 (as amended)
 Regulation (EC) No 178/2002 applied by The General Food Regulations 2004 (as amended)
 Regulation (EC) No 852/2004 and No 853/2004 applied by Regulation 19(1) of the Food Safety and Hygiene (England) Regulations 2013
 Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 and related regulations

What you must do to comply with the law

The report may include contraventions - matters which do not comply with the law (Contraventions). You must address all of the contraventions identified; failure to do so could result in legal action being taken against you.

As a guide, contraventions relating to cleaning, temperature control and poor practice, should be dealt with straight away. Contraventions relating to structural repairs, your food safety management system and training, should be completed within the next 2 months. Health and safety contraventions should be dealt with within 3 months unless otherwise stated.

To assist you the report may also include observations of current practice (Observation), useful information (Information) and recommend good practice (Recommendation).

Disclaimer

My inspection was not intended to identify every contravention of the law and only covers those areas, practices and procedures examined at the time of the inspection. If the report fails to mention a particular matter this does not mean you have necessarily complied with the law.

FOOD SAFETY

Food Hygiene

Summary:

Food hygiene standards are high. You demonstrated a very good standard of compliance with legal requirements. You have safe food handling practices and procedures and all the necessary control measures to prevent cross-contamination are in place. Some minor contraventions require your attention. (Score 5)

Contamination risks

The following items exposed food to the general risk of cross-contamination with bacteria or allergens or its physical contamination with dirt or foreign objects. (Contravention)

- there was an insectocutor sited above a table used to wrap and label foods. You need to either move the insectocutor or the table from underneath the insectocutor.

Good Practice

I was pleased to see that (Observation)

- fridge's and freezers were working correctly and that you record the readings.
- that you probe hot foods to ensure adequately cooked above 85 degree celsius.

Structure and Cleaning

Summary:

The structure facilities and standard of cleaning and maintenance are all of a good standard and only minor repairs and/or improvements are required. Pest control and waste disposal provisions are adequate. The minor contraventions require your attention. (Score 5)

Facilities and Structural provision

The following facilities were inadequate or absent and must be provided or improved (Contravention)

- you need to pest proof the rear door/fire exit from the premises as a small gap could be seen.

Confidence in Management

Summary:

A food safety management system is in place and you comply fully with the law. Hazards to food are understood properly controlled managed and reviewed. Your records are appropriate and being maintained. All your staff are suitably supervised and trained. You have a very good track record.(Score 0)

Good Practice

I was pleased to see that (Observation):

- you have a computer based staff training and recording system. I was able to check food hygiene records of your store manager.
