Introduction

The report has been divided into the three areas which you are scored against: food hygiene and safety procedures, structural requirements and confidence in management/control procedures. Each section begins with a summary of what was observed and the score you have been given. Details of how these scores combine to produce your overall food hygiene rating are shown in the table on the next page. You can use the table to see where you have done well and where improvements can be made.

Sections identifying health and safety and public health concerns may be included at the end of the report, these do not form part of your food hygiene rating.

Relevant Legislation

Food Safety Act 1990 (as amended)
 Regulation (EC) No 178/2002 applied by The General Food Regulations 2004 (as amended)
 Regulation (EC) No 852/2004 and No 853/2004 applied by Regulation 19(1) of the Food Safety and Hygiene (England) Regulations 2013
 Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 and related regulations

What you must do to comply with the law

The report may include contraventions - matters which do not comply with the law (Contraventions). You must address all of the contraventions identified; failure to do so could result in legal action being taken against you.

As a guide, contraventions relating to cleaning, temperature control and poor practice, should be dealt with straight away. Contraventions relating to structural repairs, your food safety management system and training, should be completed within the next 2 months. Health and safety contraventions should be dealt with within 3 months unless otherwise stated.

To assist you the report may also include observations of current practice (Observation), useful information (Information) and recommend good practice (Recommendation).

Disclaimer

My inspection was not intended to identify every contravention of the law and only covers those areas, practices and procedures examined at the time of the inspection. If the report fails to mention a particular matter this does not mean you have necessarily complied with the law.

FOOD SAFETY

Food Hygiene

Summary:

Food hygiene standards are high. You demonstrated a very good standard of compliance with legal requirements. You have safe food handling practices and procedures and all the necessary control measures to prevent cross-contamination are in place. Some minor contraventions require your attention. (Score 5)

Contamination risks

Contravention The following items exposed food to the general risk of cross-contamination with bacteria or allergens or its physical contamination with dirt or foreign objects:

- uncovered cooked noodles under preparation table in main kitchen.

Structure and Cleaning

Summary:

The structure facilities and standard of cleaning and maintenance are all of a good standard and only minor repairs and/or improvements are required. Pest control and waste disposal provisions are adequate. The minor contraventions require your attention. (Score 5)

Cleaning of Structure

Contravention The following structural items were dirty and require more frequent and thorough cleaning:

- high level cleaning in staff W.C. as cobwebs could be seen.

Confidence in Management

Summary:

A food safety management system is in place and you demonstrate a very good standard of compliance with the law. Food hazards are understood properly controlled managed and reviewed. Your records are appropriate and generally maintained. Your staff are suitably supervised and trained. You have a good track record. There are some minor contraventions which require your attention. (Score 5)

Proving Your Arrangements are Working Well

Contravention The following management sections in your SFBB pack were not being used or the records were missing:

- up to date staff training records.
- suppliers list.

Allergens

Contravention The following was evidence you had not informed your customers about the presence of allergens in your food:

- Allergen information was either missing from your menu or an allergen used as an ingredient had not been highlighted there

Legal requirement New legislation requires food businesses to provide allergy information on unpackaged food sold from all catering outlets including takeaways, deli counters, bakeries and sandwich bars etc. The potential for cross-contamination by allergens must be made known to consumers. There are also changes to existing legislation on labelling allergy causing ingredients in pre-packed foods. You can obtain more information from the Trading Standards website; www.norfolk.gov.uk/abc. up to date staff training records.
