2. Norwich City Council (hereafter referred to as "the Council") hereby extends the Public Spaces Protection Order which came into effect on the 26th July 2023. Section 60 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 (hereafter referred to as "the Act"), allows such Orders to be extended providing the Council is satisfied on reasonable grounds that an extension is necessary to prevent the recurrence of the behaviour identified in the order, or an increase in the frequency or seriousness of those activities after that time.
3. The extension of the Public Spaces Protection Order No. 1 of 2023 comes into force at midnight on 26 July 2026 for a period of three years thereafter, unless extended by further order under the Council's statutory powers. The Order shall continue to apply to the City of Norwich, as outlined in red on the plan attached to this Order.
4. The Public Spaces Protection Order No. 1 of 2023 applies to all public places within the Council's administrative boundary which boundary is shown outlined in red on the plan attached to the Public Spaces Protection Order No. 1 of 2023 and which satisfy the definition of public place set out in this paragraph (such public places being jointly "the restricted area" over which this Order has effect). A public place is any place to which the public or any section of the public has access, on payment or otherwise, as of right or by virtue of express or implied permission. Public places include but are not limited to the following examples: car parks (including those provided for customers of a business), sports fields and playing fields and their attached facilities, parks and recreation grounds, public highways including footway and verge, footpaths and bridleways, public open space land and communal open space owned by the Council or other landowner.

Challenging the validity of orders

Any interested person may apply to the High Court to question the validity of the extension of the Public Spaces Protection Order No. 1 of 2023 and an interested person means an individual who lives in the restricted area or who regularly works in or visits that area. Any such interested person may apply to the High Court within six weeks from the date on which this Order was made on the grounds that the Council did not have the power to make the Order or to include particular prohibitions or requirements imposed by the Order or that a requirement under Chapter 2 of the Act was not complied with in relation to this Order.

The Corporate Seal of the City Council of Norwich was hereunto affixed on this day 9th July 2026 in the presence of
