The premises will operate as a takeaway and delivery business, promoting all four licensing objectives. CCTV will be maintained, staff will be trained in safety and security procedures, and appropriate fire safety measures will be in place. Children will be protected through appropriate supervision and safe operating procedures.

CCTV will cover entrances, customer areas and collection points, with recordings retained for 31 days. Staff will be trained to identify and report suspicious behaviour, prevent disorder and manage incidents. An incident log will be maintained. Adequate lighting will be provided, and staff will monitor customers and delivery drivers to ensure orderly collections and prevent antisocial behaviour.

c) Public safety

The premises will maintain a fire risk assessment, fire extinguishers, emergency lighting and clear escape routes. Staff will receive fire safety and emergency procedure training. CCTV and first aid facilities will be available. Food hygiene and health and safety standards will be maintained to protect staff, customers and delivery drivers.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Staff will manage customers and delivery drivers to minimise noise and disturbance, particularly during late-night hours. No dine-in facilities or loud music will be provided. Waste and litter will be managed responsibly, and deliveries and collections will be organised to avoid unnecessary disturbance to neighbouring properties.

e) The protection of children from harm

The premises will operate solely as a takeaway and delivery service with no dine-in facilities. Children will not be permitted in kitchen or staff-only areas. CCTV will be maintained, and staff will be trained to safeguard children and report any concerns. A safe and supervised environment will be maintained for all customers.
